

Portable Spill Containment Berm

Used for the containment of oil barrels, chemical barrels and other goods in the factory, personnel or vehicle cleaning and other environmental leakage prevention

Portable Spill Containment Berm

It can be used for storing oil barrels, chemical barrels and other items in the factory, as well as for personnel cleaning and vehicle cleaning pools, etc. Adapt to the leakage prevention work in various environments. Products can be quickly opened and folded, expanded to use after folding. Compact easy to carry.

Features:

1. one-piece design with PVC , unique stainless steel supporting parts;
2. The supporting parts are convenient to be dismantled, and the berm can be dumped unilaterally to facilitate vehicle access
3. Applicable to various environments such as workshop, factory and field, Applicable to stacking and temporary storage of oil products and most acid chemicals
4. Applicable to personnel, vehicle cleaning and leakage prevention and other scenarios;
5. Reserve rings are set at the four corners, which can be used for retaining the berm;
6. Support for customization.

Portable Spill Containment Berm(with support)

External dimension (Height X Width X Length)(cm)	Capacity	Material	Colour	Model
360x360x30	700Gal /2650L	PVC/Stainless Steel	Yellow	SPPB002

Features:

1. The combination of thick PVC coating and soft and elastic foaming plastic polymer ensures that it will not wear out for long-term use;
2. Integrated design concept, without additional tools, can be installed and folded by one person, and can be installed and used immediately;
3. The trolley can be directly entered and exited, and the embankment will automatically rebound after being pressed;
4. The four corners are equipped with fixing rings, which can be used to fix the dike;
5. Support size customization.